I can see a lot of potential in this game. I would love ability to change colors of your dragon.

Right now the game doesn't offer much anything. I had seen and experienced everything in 1 hour. Dragon lose interest so quickly if an object goes too far or they can't grab it. If I throw a ball they will not chase it until they catch it and it would be nice to choose which dragon I want with me in the map. Hopefully we'll see beautiful and mysterious maps later.

I would also prefer small action like chasing evil rodents who eat dragon's food, scoreboard for how many times your dragon can catch a ball. Something to get me and my niece more addicted to the game.
